PRESIDENT VOTES AT OYSTER BAY

Half Minute Required to Mark It.

Cheered Enthusiastically by Crowd as He Emerged From Booth.

Reached His Home at 9:41 O'Clock and Immediately Drove to Polling Place.

OYSTER BAY, L. I., Nov. 8 .- President Roosevelt and his party arrived here at 9:41 a. m. today on a special train from Long Island City. The President was driven directly from the station in the carriage of Mrs. J. West Roosevelt to the polling place in the Fifth precinct of Gyster Bay. There he cast his ballot, No. 164.

Casts His Ballot. The President was received with enthusiasm by an immense crowd. He sprang briskly from the carriage, entering the polling place and shaking hands with the election judges. He was given his ballot and retired immediately to one of the booths, remaining in it scarcely more than half a minute. As he came out and handed his ballot to the presiding judge a photograph was taken. As he turned away from the ballot box he was cordially greeted by many old friends and acquaintances who had gathered to see him. Descending the stairs he entered the carriage with Mrs. J. West Roosevelt and went for a drive. As he drove away the crowd cheered him enthusiastically.

Given Cordial Reception. The President's reception at the sta-ion was notably cordial. The station building had been decorated with flags and bunting and a crowd of several hundred persons had assembled to greet him. He was received with cheers and the waving of flags as he left his Youngs, United States District Attorney for the Southern District of New York, also joined the party.

PRESIDENT AT WHITE HOUSE.

Roosevelt Arrived in Washington at 6:16 O'Clock Last Evening.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.-President toomevelt and his party, who went to Dyster Bay last night to vote, returned Roesevett and his party, who went to Cyster Bay last night to vote, returned to Washington at 6:16 o'clock this evening. Accompanied by Capt. William S. Cowies, he immediately entered a carriage at the station and was driven to the White House. The President's private car was attached to the rear of a regular Pennsylvania railroad train which was loaded with passengers, many of them who, like the Chief Executive, had been to their homes to cast their ballots for their favorite candidates.

It took only a minute for the President to alight from his car after the train came to a stop and, with Secretary Loeb, he hurried out of the station and left by a side door for his carriage. He cordially acknowledged the greetings of the spectators who had gathered, and of the unusually large detail of policemen and detectives who had been sent there to see that no harm befell him. His exit by the side door was a disappointment to a large crowd who had waited in the station to get a glimpse of him.

Accompanying the President from Oyster Bay to Washington was Mr. E. E. Merritt, a neighbor who has been acquainted with him for a long time and who will be a guest at the White House. Capt. Cowies had voted at his home in Connecticut and joined the Presidential party at Jersey City. The President's trip from Oyster Bay to Washington was comparatively uneventful. Mr. Roosevelt spent his time chatting with those about him and reading. At Trenton, where the train made a brief stop, a considerable crowd had gathered and there were loud cheers for the President. The latter was at luncheon at the time, but, in response to the demands of the people, he came out on the platform and, in a tew words, acknowledged their greetings and thanked them for their well wishes. At West Philadelphia, also, there were a number of people for whose greetings the President bowed his thanks.

The woman was condemned to life imprisonment for particle pating in nihilist conspiracies. She waved her handkerchief as a signal indicating the approach of Alexander II. when he was assassinated here in 1881. Her brother, a famous Russian singer, interceded in her behalf with Alexander II. and secured a commutation of her sentence to twenty years' imprisonment. As the woman still shows desperate nihilistic sentiments, she has now been banished.

Report That Prominent Georgian Is to Wed Man With Negro Blood.

STIRS SOUTHERN COMMUNITY

MACON, Ga., Nov. 8.—Such is the indignation of the people of Macon over the engagement of Mrs. Lee Jor-dan to Senor Don Luis F. Corea, Nicaraguan Minister to the United States, that the matter has been brought before the Common Council and has been repeatedly discussed by that body in conference with the Mayor since the report was first circulated that Corea is of negro blood.

The fact that the suggestion of misce-genation in connection with the mar-riage was made has been responsible for this interference by the Common Coun-cil. Other charges have been made against Corea, notably that he has a wife and child in Nicaragua, but these are not considered matters that would call for public action. The belief that Mrs. Jordan was to marry a man sup-posed to have negro blood in his veins was a matter in which the Common Council regarded itself as clearly justified in discussing.

It is true that Minister Corea has cleared himself of the charges against him and it has been proved that his blood is as pure in its character as that of any grandee in Spain, but this has not been generally made known in Macon, and the people here are still waiting for information which will clear the matter up to their satisfac-

"Well, no," replied the doctor, "but I don't want to lose my vote. My cousin, South Trimble, is running for Congress and I want to vote for him."

"Naturally," said the Governor, "but, you see, you will not be able to."

"All right," said the doctor. "Suppose, Governor, as I am to be out of the State, you and I pair on voting, cancelling a vote in each party."
